Tabby & Tillandsia Garden Walk Photography Competition

Photograph by Ann Worthington
 2011 Winner

The Sixth Annual Garden Walk Weekend on May 5-6, 2012 celebrates the horticultural beauty of the St. Simons/Sea Island coastal area while offering an opportunity for visitors to explore and enjoy a select and seldom seen group of eight of the Islands most inspiring private gardens. The name of the tour was selected to recognize St. Simons Island's cultural heritage by spotlighting the tabby slave cabins, circa 1804, on historic Gascoigne Bluff and their magnificent setting among the ancient oaks covered with tillandsia, or Spanish moss. The cabins are maintained by Cassina Garden Club, Inc. Proceeds from the Tabby & Tillandsia Garden Walk Weekend are placed in a trust for the preservation and maintenance of the tabby cabins and the surrounding grounds.
